

ABM Awarded NPA Accreditation by National Parking Association

August 7, 2018

Company Recognized for Standards, Excellence, and Ethical Business Practices

NEW YORK, Aug. 07, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ABM \(NYSE:ABM\), a leading provider of facility solutions, is pleased to announce it has been awarded NPA accreditation by the National Parking Association (NPA). This accreditation program is the highest industry standard granted by the NPA, and establishes industry benchmarks for best practices related to ethics, business processes and the performance of parking management and operations across commercial and public parking organizations.

"Parking is among ABM's core service offerings, along with janitorial, facilities engineering, and specialized technical solutions," said Arnold Klauber, Senior Vice President of National Parking & Transportation at ABM. "Accreditation by the NPA is a testament to the hard work and commitment of our people to deliver excellence in service, wherever our clients and their customers encounter our parking services."

"We're pleased to recognize ABM for their excellence, integrity and best practices in parking and transportation operations," said Christine Banning, IOM, CAE President of the National Parking Association. "ABM's successful achievement of NPA Accreditation signifies that it represents the best qualities in ethics, leadership and management—in a standard set by peers across all parking sectors."

The standards set forth in the accreditation program serve as a roadmap for the adoption of best in class ethical and professional business practices for the parking and transportation industry to perform at a high level in the interests of the organization, community and its clients. The program was developed with input from all sectors of the parking industry to define a roadmap of key elements for business excellence that all parking organizations should include as part of their organizations' development.
