

ABM Industries Named By Best in Biz Awards

February 19, 2019

ABM Recognized for Corporate Achievements and Business Transformation Efforts to Enhance Operational Excellence, Innovation and Client Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 19, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ABM (NYSE: ABM), a leading provider of facility solutions, announced today that it was named a silver winner in the "Comeback Company of the Year" category by Best in Biz Awards, the only annual, independent business awards program judged by prominent editors and reporters from top-tier publications in North America.

ABM received this recognition for notable progress made toward its "2020 Vision" strategic plan, a comprehensive transformation initiative launched in 2015 to drive long-term profitable growth. ABM has successfully fostered collaboration, grown profitably across the enterprise, and continues to execute against the Company's long-term strategy.

"Our people are at the core of the transformational changes we've made," said Scott Salmirs, President and Chief Executive Officer. "ABM team members are committed to making a difference, every person, every day, and this recognition reflects our commitment and dedication to delivering the best facilities experience for our clients and their customers around the world. Together, we are more focused than ever on bringing our 2020 Vision strategy to life, and shaping this 110-year-old company in a way that will preserve ABM's legacy for 110 years to come."

The 8th annual Best in Biz Awards brought in 700 entries from an impressive array of public and private companies of all sizes and from a variety of geographic regions and industries in the U.S. and Canada. The 2018 judging panel included, among others, writers from Associated Press, Barron's, Consumer Affairs, eWeek, Forbes, Healthcare Innovation News, Inc., Investment Advisor Magazine, New York Post, New York Times, and Wired.
